WESTERN CAROLINA
TEACHERS COLLEGE
CULLOWHEE
1889
N.C.

CATAMOUNT

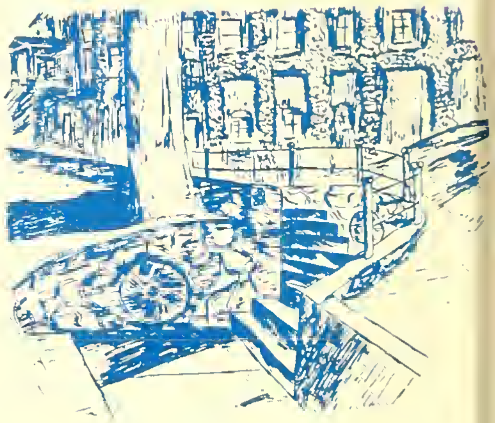
Near the middle of September every year, young men and young women from points all over the United States make up a vast migration to the hills of Western North Carolina. With a glint of the future in their eyes, their final destination is Western Carolina Teachers College. God's gift of natural scenic beauty leaves every youth awe stricken upon their first trip to Cullowhee.



As the students wind their way up the spacious Tuckaseigee valley, they drink deeply of the exotic mountain surroundings. Soon they cross the Cullowhee bridge and view the dam at the power plant. Then it is full speed ahead to four years of hard work and an education in a pleasant environment.

Joyner Building

Located in the center of the Western Carolina campus we find the ivy covered walls of JOYNER BUILDING. Here the administration of the school is planned and carried out.

The college youth spends a major portion of his free hours on the ground floor of this building — either waiting for that letter or package in the post office or mingling with the other students in the book store, which is operated for the student's convenience by the genial proprietor, Hugh Battle.

A very complete and efficiently conducted library occupies the third floor.

Student Union Building

Across the street from the administration building stands the STUDENT UNION BUILDING. Numerous activities, which occupy a prominent spot in the campus life of the student, have their home here. Such functions as dances, games, and club meetings head the list. Two other extremely important rooms in this building are the Senate Chamber, where student government meetings and elections are held, and the Press Room, where the campus publications are edited.

Through the arch can be seen Little Caesar who keeps a constant vigilance on Moore Dormitory.

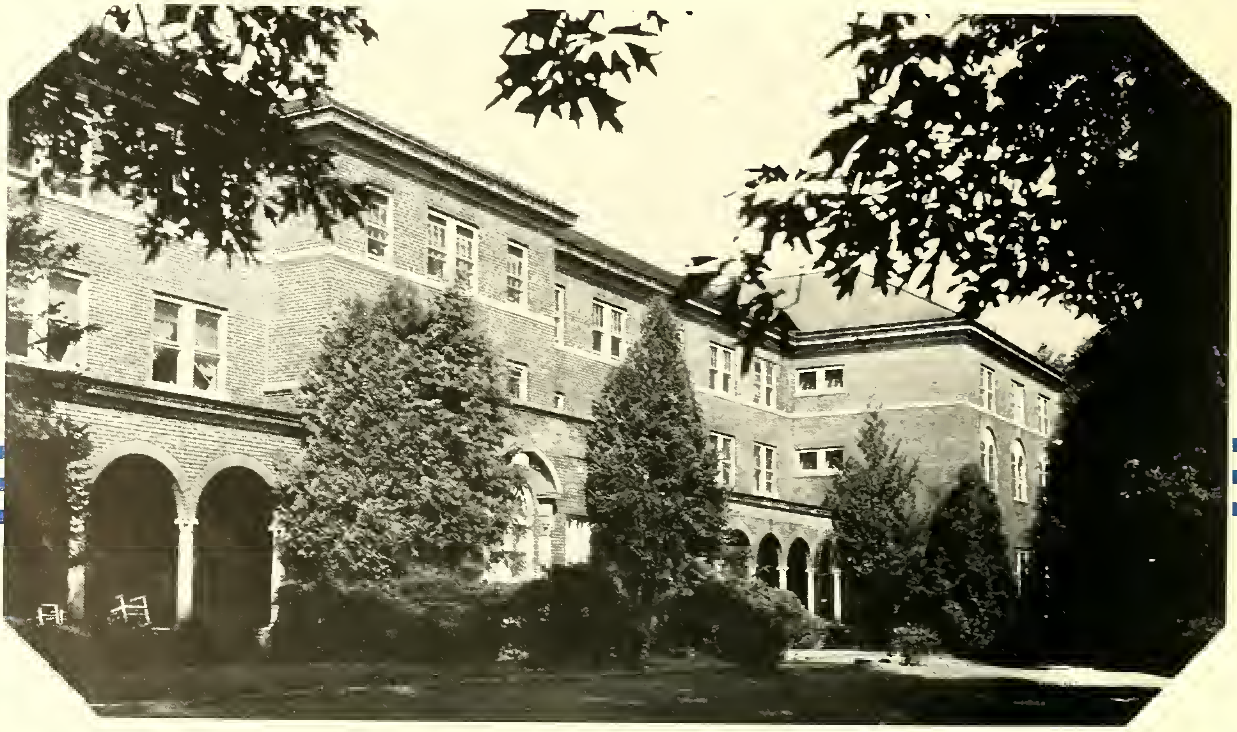
COLLEGE SHOP

MOORE DORMITORY is the home of the campus co-eds. This structure also houses the dining hall. Some of the most beautiful shrubbery on the campus surrounds this building.

Moore
Dormitory



Robertson Hall

Boys' dormitory and home of many of the faculty members and their families, Robertson Hall is located on the highest peak on the campus.

Residence of most of the male populace of the campus, Madison Dormitory is presently the largest dormitory on the hill. This structure was named in honor of Professor Robert L. Madison, founder and first president of the college.

Classroom Building

The CLASSROOM BUILDING which has served the college faithfully since 1922 will bow out of the picture this year in preference to a new $2,000,000 structure. Although the old building harbors many fond memories the new building will initiate a new era in education and progress at Western Carolina Teachers College.

New Classroom Building

Hoey Auditorium

Numerous functions of student importance take place at HOEY AUDITORIUM. Everything from Lyceum Numbers to plays, by the Carolina Players, to band concerts and Student Assemblies. In the picture on the right, the masses are flocking to assembly.

The McKEE TRAINING SCHOOL is the site of Teacher Training for North Carolina public schools. Here, most of the students of the college go through a rigorous year of student teaching.

We Dedicate

Through your 15 years of faithful service to Western Carolina, you have proved yourself to be an instructor of highest esteem and a true friend to the students both in and out of the classroom.

Your wide and varied experiences have brought forth a wealth of enlightening information that makes your classes extremely gratifying. Your never failing kindness and sense of humor and your prestige and wisdom have added immeasurably to the stature of our school.

For all of this, the Class of 1952 and the staff of the 1952 CATAMOUNT respectfully dedicate this edition of our yearbook to

DR. W. NEWTON TURNER.

This man joined our faculty in 1937. His teaching experiences were interrupted twice by stretches in the Armed Services and Graduate School, but he returned to attain even greater heights. Professor of Geography and Geology, his latest assignment is director of Graduate School at Western Carolina Teachers College.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM C. NORTON

September 17, 1856 — October 31, 1951

His long and continual service to our school lives on as an inspiration to all who know and love Western Carolina Teachers College. Last member of the original board of trustees, the "Noble Nine" he served continuously from 1889 to 1912.

PRESIDENT PAUL A. REID

Message From Our President: . . . . .

No college in America can boast a more beautiful location than Western Carolina Teachers College. Students and faculty take much pride in this fact and visitors tell us how fortunate we are to live and work in such a paradise of nature.

Fast in the Carolina Highlands, the college lies in the beautiful Cullowhee Valley between the Blue Ridge mountains to the east, the Great Smokies to the west, the Balsams to the north, and the Cowees and Nantahalas to the south. Quietly and serenely nearby flows the Tuckaseigee River as it winds its way through the valleys of the majestic mountains, finally forming a part of the great Fontana Lake.

Mountain streams, waterfalls, lakes, and high peaks near the college make this one of the greatest scenic and recreational areas in the United States. Located in the heart of the Southern Appalachians no college is blessed more with the beauties of nature—truly the handiwork of a Supreme Creator.

We rolled into Cullowhee three years ago to the tune of "Again." After twelve years of school, college, although new and exciting, was really just a continuation of books, studies, sports, clubs and fun.

"I'll Never Be Free" was our theme song our Sophomore year, and we were beginning to feel that way. College life had lost some of its glamour and we were having to study a little. We didn't miss many social events, but the old "Lit" book didn't make a very soft pillow at 2 a.m.

Our third year was here before we knew it and proved to be even more complicated than the others. "Tell Me Why" was heard quite often—why do we have to observe, do case studies, write term papers? Our Junior year is fun, but we are looking forward to being the high and mighty Seniors who know all the answers.

Having been through the heartaches, homesickness, and happiness of our Freshman days, we, the Sophisticated Sophomores felt quite at home this year. This year has been a full one . . . full of business, work, and fun. We'll never forget it; we liked it—but after a year of toil, we're ready to leave the position to the unsuspecting Freshmen.

Well, we know what it is going to be like from here on out. We have completed that first major step in this so-called college life, and you had better watch out because we intend to be around until 1955!

It was deciding what subject to major in, what subjects to take, how to work in enough hours, and what it took to get enough quality points to stick around—but now all that is a precious memory which can rest safely, for the next three years will all be different.

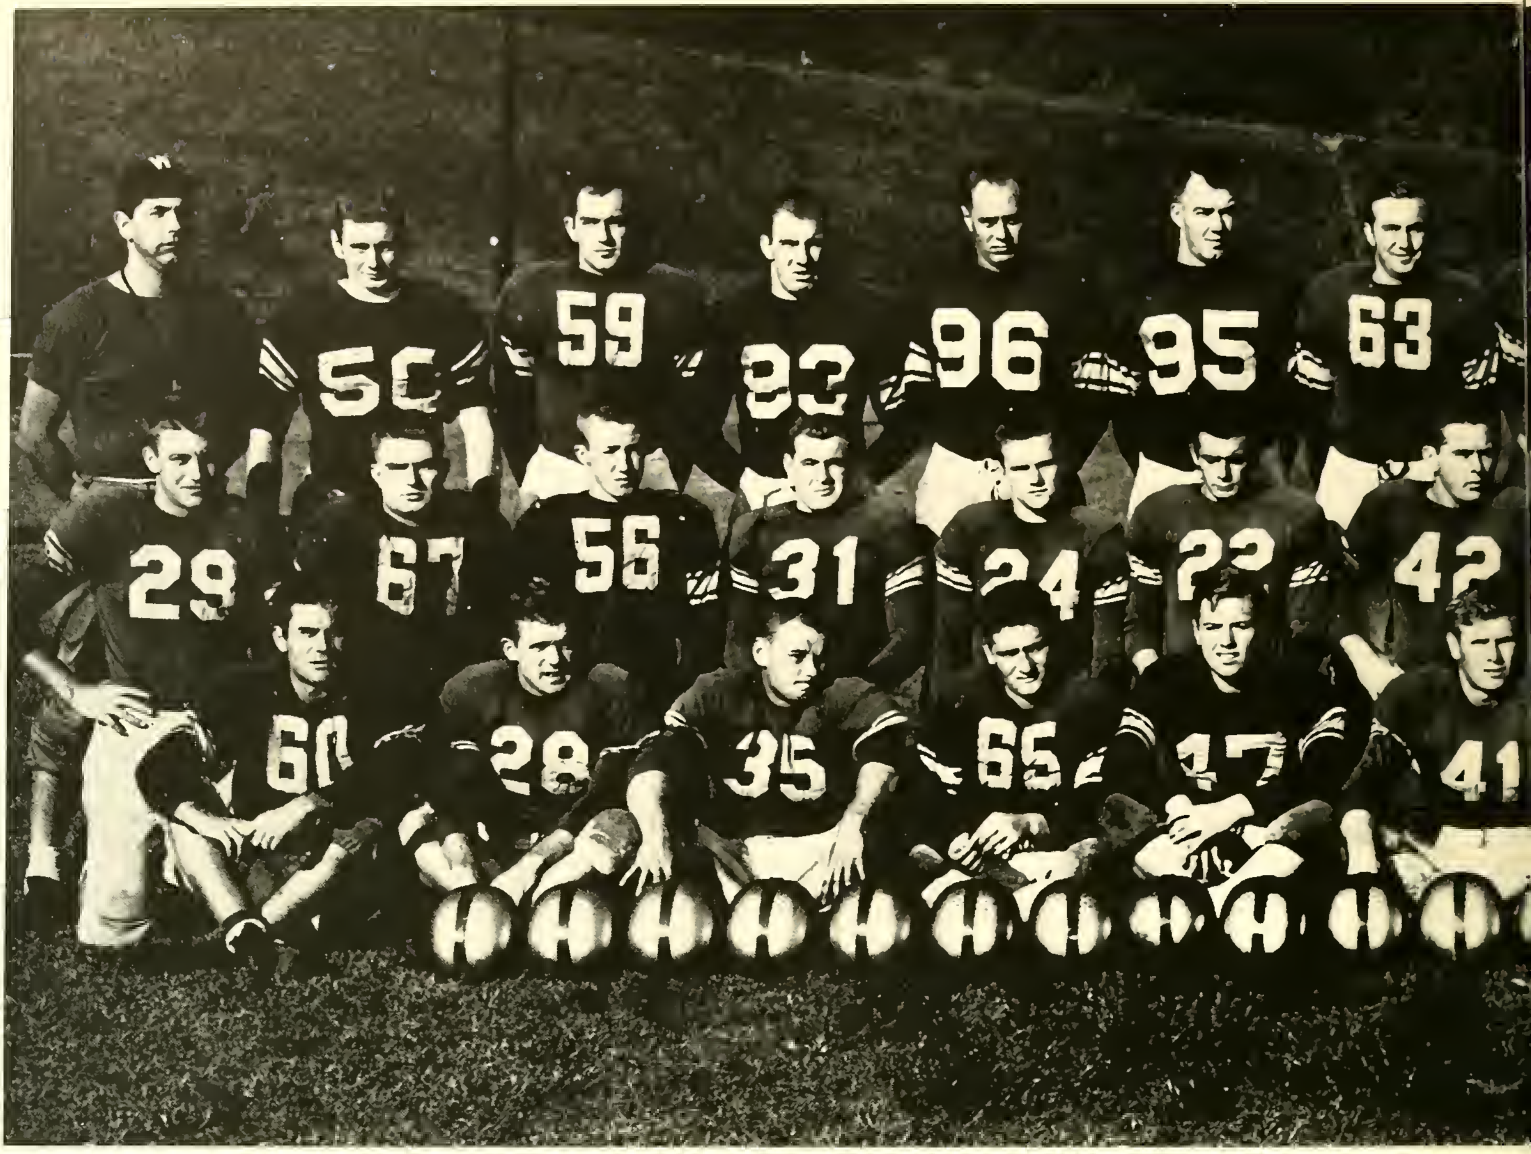
Our Mascot



THE VARSITY

Western Carolina's 1951 Catamounts were able to win only three games of a tough nine-game schedule but endeared themselves to their faithful followers with a fine comeback after a poor start. The loss of eight seniors was sorely felt but the keenest disappointment was the call to colors of several outstanding prospects. Included in this group are Gilbert Packett, Bob Rumbaugh, Bob Lee, and Alton Greeson. Replacements were found but the season was half over before Coaches Tom Young and Jim Gudger could assemble a winning combination. In the latter stages of the fall the Cats were a dangerous crew and gained the respect of all who opposed them. Several young prospects were unearthed who could lead the way to better things in '52.

Collectively there are many pleasant moments to warm the hearts of the future alumni. Never to be forgotten is the brilliant comeback against East Carolina on homecoming which revived our sagging fortunes. Against Emory and Henry the Cats stopped little All-American Bob Miller and completely dominated every phase of the game only to lose on tough breaks. In the curtain raiser the locals defeated an East Tennessee State team which developed into one of the best in their history. A decisive victory of arch rival Carson-Newman ended the year in a satisfying manner.

vide pleasant conversation when the old grads get together. These include Ralph Singleton's triple-threat job against East Carolina, Jim Stevens' passing versus Emory and Henry, the clutch extra points kicked by Mac Bowman in the East Tennessee and ECC games, and Jim Fugate's brilliant punting in the Emory and Henry contest. The running of Paul Rogers, pass receiving of Stuart Brown, Roy Church's fine defensive play, the reverses run by Fred Henry and the general excellent performances of Elmo Neal and Effie Stewart all contributed to late season upsurge of the Cats. This by no means covers the situation but can serve as a starter for future bull sessions.

Captain Effie Stewart was awarded a tackle position on the All-North State team plus a third team slot as picked by the Charlotte Observer. Roy Church was an honorable mention choice on the All-State team, the Greensboro Daily News and Charlotte Observer squads. Mac Bowman and Paul Rogers rated third team honors on the Observer's team while Bill Phillips and Clyde Bumgarner were honorable mention choices by the same paper.

Graduating seniors include Paul Rogers, Tommy Hornaday, Tommy Selzer, Stuart Brown, Tommy Robertson, Ed Singleton, Tom Young, Elmo Neal, Effie Stewart, Boyce Padgett, and Frank Arnette. Norris Jones and Charles Underwood, of the coaching staff will also receive their diplomas.

EAST TENNESSEE STATE 6

The Western Carolina Catamounts christened their 1951 football season with a hard-earned 7-6 victory over the rugged East Tennessee State Buccaneers in Johnson City, Tenn. The Cats rolled up over 300 yards on the ground but were able to score only once. At the same time an impregnable defensive line forced the Bucs to take to the air for virtually all of their yardage.

Both teams did their scoring in the second period. A short punt by a Tennessee back resulted with the Catamounts in possession on the opponents' 25. Big Mac Bowman, 200-pound tailback, took over and scored in three plays. Bowman also converted. The Buccaneers, via passing, scored on the last play in the half and for all intents and purposes the ball game was over when the try for conversion was no good.

CATAMOUNTS 6

APPALACHIAN 26

The Cats went down to their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Appalachian Mountaineers by a 26-6 score on a dreary night in Boone. The Apps simply swept the Catamounts off their feet before they could get started.

Paced by two fine running backs in Triplett and Groce, the Black Knights from Boone rolled up a three touchdown lead in the first half and increased it to four by the end of the third period. Late in the final period, B. T. Wright intercepted a pass and made an exceptional 35-yard run for the Cats' only score.

PRESBYTERIAN 12

Even though they were defeated for the second consecutive time, the Catamounts played fine ball before bowing to the Presbyterian eleven, 12-0, in Clinton, S. C. Tough breaks and an exceptional Blue Stocking quarterback were mostly responsible for the Cat downfall.

The Catamounts drove into scoring territory several times but seemed to lack the scoring punch. A number of injuries to key Cat offensive backs hampered them also. Harper's passing accounted for the South Carolinians' first tally in the initial period. Harper also scored the other touchdown on a quarterback sneak just before the game ended.

CATAMOUNTS 7
CATAWBA 37

Asheville's Memorial Stadium was the scene of the Catamounts' second conference loss and the most severe licking of the season as they bowed to the Catawba Indians, 37-7. It might be said that intercepted passes, fumbles, and the expert passing and quick kicking of Coble, stellar Indian halfback, were the main stumbling blocks in the way of the Cats.

The blue shirted Indians piled up a 23-0 lead at half time and increased this margin to 37-0 by the end of the third quarter. The Catamounts pushed across their lone tally near the end of the final period. Red Stevens was the main cog in an 85-yard drive which ended with Stevens crashing over from the two.

EAST CAROLINA 20

It will be a long time before the old grads forget the memorable comeback staged by the Catamounts in their Homecoming victory over East Carolina, 34-20. In a game before a gathering of 3,000 excited spectators, Coach Tom's spirited crew overcame a two touchdown deficit at half time and went on to pulverize the hapless Pirates in a wild second half scoring spree. Undoubtedly, it was one of the greatest comebacks in the annals of Catamount football history.

The keyed up Cats jumped to an early lead in the first quarter when they drove 34 yards for a touchdown with the trusty right arm of Ralph Singleton paving the way. Wingback B. T. Wright was on the receiving end of Ralph's TD toss. The boys from the flat country then came to life as they chalked up three touchdowns before half time and the game began to show signs of a rout. Later, down state Newsmen expressed puzzlement as to the method Coach Tom employed at half time to inspire his boys for their brilliant second half. Be that as it may, the bewildered Pirates hardly knew what hit them when Singleton bulled over for two third period markers thereby putting the Catamounts into a one point lead. Not content with such a scant margin, the Catamounts tallied twice more in the final conto. A 57-yard drive ended with Singleton scoring his third touchdown of the night and Frank Parker, ace linebacker, ended the scoring when he scampered 40 yards with an intercepted pass. Mac Bowman missed only one conversion in this, the Cats' greatest victory of the year.

LENOIR RHYNE 33

The Catamounts absorbed a bad licking at the hands of the Lenoir Rhyne Bears to the tune of a 33-7 score in Asheville's Memorial Stadium. The Bears, eventual champions of the conference, threw up a strong defense and a quick striking offense but they had to wait until mid-way in the final half to gain a substantial lead. The Cat men showed a creditable defense during most of the first half but could not cope with the amazing down field blocking displayed by the Champs in the latter stages of the game. The offense was practically held to a stalemate.

Lenoir Rhyne struck for two quick touchdowns on long end sweeps during the first half. However, the Catamounts refused to give up. Early in the third period, Red Stevens heaved two nice passes which ate up 68 yards and a touchdown. Mack Bowman, after sprinting 35 yards for the score, proceeded to kick the extra point and the Cats trailed 7-13. The rest of the game proved to be a nightmare with the swift Bear backs grinding out tremendous yardage and finally rolling on to a 33-7 victory.

ELON 23

The Catamounts went down to defeat, in their final road trip of the season, to Elon's Christians by a 23-0 whitewashing at Reidsville. The game was much closer than the score indicated and it was not until the final quarter that the Christians pulled away. The Cats gained 156 yards by passing but Elon was far more potent on the ground.

Western Carolina provided most of the fireworks during the first quarter when they scored once on a pass from Ralph Singleton to Pockets Brown only to have the play nullified by an off-sides penalty. Rochelli, the big gun for the Christians, broke away for 35 yards and a touchdown shortly before half time to put the home team ahead 7-0. Two desperate tackles by the Elon safety man prevented Catamount tallies by Rogers and Henry after they had broken into the clear during this same quarter.

The Cats were again on the prowl at the start of the second half. A brilliant goal line stand, spearheaded by little All-American Sal Gero, stopped the Catamount drive to the Christian's one-yard line. From this point, Messrs. Rochelli, Biangardi, and Grayson took over and sparked the Christians to two more touchdowns. Elon also chalked up two points via a safety when Singleton was trapped in his own end zone.

Despite having nine men on the casualty list, Coach Young's crew played a hard game which had the Elon coaches worried throughout the contest. On offense, the passing combination of Singleton to Brown received much praise as did the fine running of Rogers and Henry. Stewart, Parker, Church, and Hornaday turned in fine defensive jobs.

Two Wasps Try in Vain to Stop Steven's Touchdown Thrust

CATAMOUNTS 7
EMORY & HENRY 13

In what might have been one of the greatest small college upsets of the year, the Catamounts dropped a heart-breaking 13-7 decision to a highly favored Emory & Henry eleven. The Wasps, after being outplayed in every department, intercepted a pass late in the third quarter to eke out their hard earned victory over Coach Tom Young's fired up Cats in Memorial Stadium.

Western Carolina drew first blood when they took the opening kickoff and proceeded to march 98 yards for a touchdown within the first three minutes. Highlighting this drive, behind the effective blocking of big Mac Bowman, was the running of Fred Henry and Paul Rogers and the passing of Red Stevens. Red smashed over for a touchdown from the two and Bowman's kick made it 7-0 over the dazed Wasps.

Though they were not able to score, the Catamounts continued to roll until mid-way through the second period when a Wasp defensive back, one Creed Bruce by name, intercepted a pass and returned it to the Cat's ten-yeard line. From this point, the boys from Virginia tallied their first score but still trailed at half time when the attempted conversion was blocked.

The third quarter found the Cats driving desperately for another score, but Dame Fortune again dealt them a bad hand. The ever-persistent Mr. Brunce intercepted a pass and proceeded to romp 90 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

CARSON NEWMAN 13

The Catamounts closed out a long hard season with a brilliant 34-13 victory over Carson Newman's undermanned Eagles in snow-swept Memorial Stadium. It was evident from the opening kick-off that Coach Young's fired up Cats were determined to avenge their somewhat mediocre season by soundly thumping the Eagles, which they accomplished in grand style. Except for two third-period paydirt drives, the boys from Tennessee were simply outplayed and outfought as the locals' powerful single wing ground out yardage at will.

Despite the freezing weather, passing proved to be the Cats' most potent weapon when they chalked up 194 yards via the air lanes. Four of the touchdowns were contributed directly from the bulls-eye tossing of the Purple and Gold tailbacks and the other indirectly. Aiding and abetting the passing attack were the powerful up-the-middle smashes by fullbacks Paul Rogers and churning Bobby Cunningham. The mixture of the two kept the Eagles' defensive platoon in much confusion throughout the game. However, as in most victories, it was the work of the rugged linemen that really turned the tide. Paced by such stalwarts as Pockets Brown, Effie Stewart, Buddy Padgett, and Tommy Robertson, all seniors, the Cat line was magnificent with their vicious blocking and tackling.

Freshman Red Stevens threw two touchdown passes to Fred Henry and scored another on a fake toss. Two other tailbacks, Ed Taylor and Tommy Young, also heaved pay-off aerials to Cunningham and Jimmy Michael respectively. Mac Bowman missed only one conversion.

The Catamounts' basketball squad finished the 1951-52 season with a record of 13 wins and 14 losses. In the torrid North State Conference race, Coach Jim Gudger's hoopsters wound up in seventh place with 7 victories and 9 defeats. They spent much of the season in the first division before bowing out of the fight. Paced by Ronald Rogers and Paul Taylor, the Catamounts scored 1,960 points for a 72.6 average per game. Against Piedmont, the team and Rogers set a new school and individual scoring record when they tallied 100 and 39 points respectively. Despite their lack of height, the Cat cagemen showed much improvement over the previous season and Coach Gudger considered it a successful year.

BASEBALL

Despite the toll of graduation and the Armed Forces, Coach Jim Gudger expects his diamond crew to make a good account of itself in the North State circuit this season. When spring practice rolls around, Coach Jim will have to rely on freshmen to fill the completely vacated outfield and catching departments. Four lettermen, Ronald Rogers, Aaron Stroud, John Hansil, and Buddy Foster will return to bolster the inner-defenses. Babe Howell, Charlie Johnson, and O. V. Cagle form the nucleus of the mound corps. Gudger will again depend on the durable Frank Parker, one of the loop's best hurlers and batters, to aid in the catching, pitching, and outfield department. Approximately twenty games have been scheduled with North State foes, semi-pro clubs, and professional teams.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The properly conducted physical education program at a modern college or university affords non-varsity athletes the chance to play competitive sports on an intramural basis. Western Carolina Teachers College is a prime example, where the intramural program is far-flung and capably directed by Floyd T. Siewert, head of the Department of Health and Physical Education.

The Western Carolina intramural program includes all types of sports. The fall group contains tag football, tennis, table tennis, and badminton. Winter: basketball, volley ball and foul shooting. Spring: softball, tennis, horseshoes, and fishing. These are the major ones. Others are inserted at times throughout the year.

THE 1952 CATAMOUNT

"Inexperienced" was the best term to apply to the condition of the CATAMOUNT staff, when plans were laid for the yearbook in the fall of '51. The mistakes during the formation stages were numerous, but the staff has tried to profit from its errors. The advice of the capable advisors has been of inestimable value in planning this book, produced by the united efforts of the staff members. The staff can only hope it has had beginner's luck.

The Longine Symphonettes Receive Tremendous Ovation

A capacity crowd in Hoey Auditorium saw the Longines Symphonettes under the direction of Mishel Piastro present one of the best programs ever given at Western Carolina Teachers College. The brilliance of the violins and flutes and the smooth bass voices of the cellos along with "ticklings of ivory" combined to make beautiful harmony and easy listening enjoyment.

Probably the best liked number presented was Frity Kreisler's "Caprice Viennois" with the first iolinist doing the solo. Other songs on the program were "Praeludium and Allegro" by Piastro Kreisler. "Symphony in D Major" by Hydn; "Three Irish Pictures" by John Ansell; "Oria" by Bach; "Moto Perpetus" by Brunelli Paganini; "Orpheus in Town", a Ballet Suite, by Hilding Rosenberg; "Liebesfraud" by Kreisler; "Jamaican Rumba" by Benjamin; the ever loving "Claire De Lune" by Debussy; and "The March of the Siamese Children" by Richard Rodgers. A Strauss Waltz from "Die Fledernaus" closed the program. Tremendous ovations from the audience brought the symphonettes back for three enchores.

A reception was held in Moore Parlors following the concert with members of the music department of the college in charge.

The following day, the symphonettes presented a children's program at Hoey Auditorium. The children loved these happy men and their music as they played songs that children love.

Plans Made To Reorganize F.B.L.A.

The first meeting of the Future Business Leaders of America in 1952 was held recently. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the progress of the organization during 1951 and tentative plans for 1952.

After brief reports by the project committee, the initiation committee, and a committee for the purpose of publishing a booklet with the picture of all graduating members of the clubs with data, to be sent to prospective employers, the members discussed plans for a tour through the offices of stores in Asheville, Knoxville, and other towns. These tours are to be made between now and the end of the club's fiscal year.

It was also discussed among the members the possibility of changing a clause in the constitution of the organization. As the clause now reads anyone may become a member of the club by paying their dues. The revised clause, if put into effect, will require all prospective members to be voted into the club with the exception of Business majors or minors who are automatically a member upon paying their dues.

Chuck Murdock, chairman of a committee to investigate the possibilities of severing relations with the national FBLA and affiliating with a commercial Fraternity, gave a report on the accomplishments of that committee to date and their tentative plans.

Five members were added to the growing list of active members. John Edwards, president, adjourned the meeting for refreshments and recreation consisting of singing and square dancing.

News For Veterans

number of disabled World War II veterans in training under the vocational rehabilitation law—Public Law 16—had dropped to the lowest point in five years and stood at only about 60,000, Veterans Administration said.

The law provides training at Government expense for veterans with service connected disabilities which constitute a vocational handicap, when special training is needed to overcome the hanicap. The same type of training is provided for veterans who have been disabled in active military service since the beginning of the Korean action.

The peak of the rehabilitation training program for World War II veterans came in 1947, when more than 250,000 disabled veterans were in training to overcome handicaps. The number enrolled has dropped steadily since that time until today when it stands at about one-fourth of the peak figure.

The Veterans Administration report showed the types of training being taken by veterans now enrolled, in the order of popularity: first, institutional on-farm training; second, college and university training; third, on-the-job training; fourth, courses in trade and vocational schools and other schools below college level.

Medical Schools Recommend May Admission Test

Princeton, N J., January 11.—Candidates for admission to medical school in the fall of 1953 are advised to take the Medical College Admission Test in May, it was announced today by Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the test for the Association of American Medical College. These tests, required of applicants by a number of leading medical colleges throughout the country, will be given twice during the current calendar year. Candidates taking the May test, however, will be able to furnish scores to institutions in early fall, when many medical colleges begin the selection of their next entering class.

Candidates may take the MCAT on Saturday, May 10, 1952, or on Monday, November 3, 1952, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1953 take the May test.

The MCAT consists of tests of general scholastic ability, a test on understanding of modern society, and an achievement test in science. According to ETS, no special preparation other than a review of science subjects is necessary. All questions are of the objective type.

Cullowhee Donates 151 Pints Of "Red Life"

The Red Cross Bloodmobile visited the campus of Western Carolina Teachers College recently and collected a total of 151 pints of blood from the students, faculty and citizens of Cullowhee. Cullowhee and WCTC can afford to feel proud of this splendid record, because the previous record for blood donations was doubled and the Red Cross stated it was highly satisfied with the turn-out of donors. Since the Bloodmobile was only on the campus for six hours, we have on an average a pint of "red life" being filled every 2 1-2 minutes for shipment to our boys in Korea.

The Student Service was sponsor for the blood drive with Miss Frances Stoltz, chairman of the committee on arrangements. Other members of the committee were Miss Annie Ruth Watts and Mr. Harold Funderburke.

Some of the various clubs on the campus are asking to sponsor a return trip of the Bloodmobile in April or May. It is hoped that this will be possible, and a quota of 200 pints of blood can be reached who will be so honored. For obvious reasons, this list cannot be allowed to "mushroom", and the key to final selection is given in points, a, b, c, d, e and f above. At this point the line grows very fine, and every member of the committee searches his conscience and mind as thoroughly as possible.

Miss Anne Hammond is Chairman of the Dean's List Committee, and I feel sure that she or any member of her committee will be glad to answer any further questions that any student may have concerning this matter. Let me commend you for the fine purpose your paper is serving. I hope that others will be encouraged to write you about any matter which is of concern, and that we may be of help.

Sincerely yours,
W. E. BIRD, Dean.

CARMEN GREENE

The drum major and majorettes led the WCTC Catamount Marching Band on many occasions during fall quarter: all home games and two in Asheville, halftime ceremonies, and the Homecoming Parade through Sylva. The new talent of the freshmen, added to the majorettes from the 1950-51 group, produced an outstanding quintet to lead the band.

Head Cheerleader

The Cheerleaders increased their activities during 1951-52 by cheering at home basketball games, as well as home football games and some of those off-campus. They also led yells at pep rallies before football games. For the first time letter sweaters were awarded to those cheerleaders who have served two years on the squad. The second team members led the cheering at Kittymount games.

A MESSAGE TO
W. C. T. C. STUDENTS

Into your hands, the future teachers of our children, will be given the responsibility of molding the minds of our future generations. How you respond to the barrage of Communism-Socialism propaganda disguised as Social Welfare, will determine what course this Nation's future will take.

Freedom of the individual has made America great and you should stand foursquare against any attempts of government or man to take away these freedoms.

"The history of liberty is the history of the limitation of governmental power, not the increase of it. When we resist concentration of power we are resisting the process of death, because the concentration of power is always what precedes the destruction of human liberties."
